

fourfiveX

is an initiative for independent thoughts, products, design and art run by Alexander Lis and Tim Heiler • works with graphic design, art, concepts, drawing, text, type, photography, painting, observations, found and manufactured objects • collects and publishes material through www.fourfiveX.net and various other channels • is now offering an internship.

We offer

regular creative assignments (if you want and/or need them) • the possibility to work on your own projects • the possibility to be part of a constantly publishing design and art platform • no office times (since there is no office) • the possibility to travel, visit exhibitions, research or just hang out with friends whenever you wish • collaboration/dialogue • the possibility to have a job on the side (we would prefer non-design jobs) • an official piece of paper confirming your internship.

You need

the will to be part of our small “organization” for a certain amount of time • the will to work on free projects • the will to join into this experiment • a digital camera • a laptop • an internet connection • a skype account • a bit of an idea on how to upload images to the web • some basic knowledge of html and css maybe • an interesting portfolio could help.

The internship

can last for any amount of time from 3 to 6 months • allows you to be based anywhere you wish, contacts can be dealt with via the web • may require personal meetings on occasions • does not involve money (for none of us) • can be applied for via e-mail.
